IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE FOR RAJASTHAN AT JODHPUR

CIVIL WRIT No. 1030 of 2007

ARAVALI TAXI OPERATOR UNION,ABU ROAD
V/S
STATE & ORS.

Mr. LAXMI MAL LODHA, for the appellant / petitioner

Mr. MAHAVEER BISHNOI for Mr. RAKESH ARORA, for the respondent

Date of Order : 11.5.2007

HON'BLE SHRI N P GUPTA,J.

ORDER

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

The grievance of the petitioner substantially is about the constitution of the respondent-trade union, and various submissions have been made about the verification of names and addresses of the members having not been done by the Registrar, or the names being not correct, and so on.

However, in substance, the grievance of the petitioner is that on the existence of the petitioner-union, the respondent-union could not be registered, as it gives rise to various local problems.

In my view, under the provisions of Trade Union Act, there is no prohibition against registration of more than one union at one place, or with respect to any industrial establishment. In that view of the matter, the grievance of the petitioner cannot be entertained in the writ petition. So far as the aspect of shortcomings in the respondent-union is concerned, that is for the authorities concerned to take care. The petitioner for that purpose is no better then a rank busy body.

The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed summarily.
